2. WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

Summary: The person or entity responsible for processing your data may depend on the situation. Sometimes this is Profila, but sometimes also a Consumer or Brand. Profila processes Personal Data about you when you use the App. However, certain Personal Data you generate (Consumer-Generated Data) or share via the App (via Consumer-Initiated Interactions) may fall under a consumers or Brands responsibility and may be subject to the privacy policy of those you share it with.

2.1. Personal Data controlled by Profila

You acknowledge and agree that by using the App, Profila may Process Data about you, including Personal Data, as set out in this Privacy Policy. Profila will be considered a data controller in relation to all Personal Data we explicitly solicit from you (e.g. information you are asked upon registration to the App, such as your first and last name, email address and phone number, nationality and country of residency) and for Personal Data we Process in order to provide you with the services in the App (e.g. servicing you in case of any questions or problems with the App).

2.2. Personal Data controlled independently by Profila and yourself

Apart from the Personal Data we explicitly solicit from you and that is Processed in accordance with section 2.1, there is Personal Data you generate willingly / on your own initiative. This concerns, amongst others, Personal Data that you include:

- (i) in your “My Profila” account (e.g. your work address or languages you speak);
- (ii) in your responses to a Quiz that is saved under your “Categories” (e.g. you answered in a food-related Quiz that you are a vegetarian or a vegan), and
- (iii) in a Moment you created (and which was not send to a Brand);

(hereinafter together referred to as “Consumer-Generated Data”).

In addition, there is Personal Data you willingly / on your own initiative share with third parties. This includes, amongst other, Personal Data that is shared:

- (i) when you exercise a Data Subject Right towards a Brand (e.g. your personal and contact details, and any other Personal Data in the Request Document in Annex 1 to the EULA);
- (ii) when you accept a Subscription Offer from a Brand and grant a Personal Data License to such Brand;
- (iii) when you respond to a Brand Moment from a Brand Subscriber;

(hereinafter together referred as “Consumer-Initiated Interactions”).

In relation to Consumer-Generated Data and Consumer-Initiated Interactions, you are considered an independent controller in addition to Profila for the following reasons:

- Profila only determines the means (the “how”) of the Processing of Personal Data – by designing the App with its consumer-empowerment functionalities and by making the App available to the Consumer, and provides for the safe storage and security of Personal Data; The purpose for providing these functionalities (which Process Personal Data) is the overall operation of its App and Platform.
- You as a Consumer are the only one who determines the purpose (the “why”) of the Processing of Personal Data – for example, which Personal Data to include in the App as Consumer-Generated Data (if any); how a Consumer’s Personal Data is managed; whether Data Rights are exercised and if so, to which Brand; whether any Personal Data gets shared as part of Consumer-Initiated Interactions, and if so, with which Brands and under which conditions; whether a Brand can send any Brand Moments and if so, the frequency thereof;

We therefore are both responsible for Personal Data which is processed in accordance with this section 2.2. Although Profila will fulfill all of its responsibilities in relation to the storage and security of such Personal Data, we also expect you to take up your own responsibilities (e.g. safe passwords, do not give other people access to your Profila account).

2.3. Personal Data shared with Brands under a Subscription Contract

The Processing of the Personal Data by a Brand Subscriber under a Subscription Contract is subject to the Brand Privacy Terms as set out in the Subscription Offer provided to you by such Brand.
